Appropriations by Congress in Last Two Years Carry Their Own Comment on Professions of Economy.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21 .- The subjoined table, giving the amounts appropriated by Congress for the support of the Government for the years 1913-14 and 1914-15, is compiled from the chronological history of the Sixty-third Congress, prepared by the cierks to the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate, cents being disregarded: 1914-15, 1918-14.

The pension appropriation, for obvious reasons, is decreased by $1,000,000; the Military Academy bill is $100,000 less than was allowed for last year; the sundry civil bill is down by $6,725,000. But generally there are increases, and the comparison of total appropriations, excluding the river and harbor appropriations, for a series of years shows this distributing record:

detail above were made by a party in full control of the legislative and executive departments, which won power on a platform denouncing Republican extravagance and pledging its candidates to frugal administration. The laws carrying them were passed by a majority which in the House today is framing an emergency tax measure to maintain the revenues of the Government, while in the Senate it struggles to enact a river and harbor bill bloated with useless and in-defensible projects which would appro-priate at once $63,000,000, or $12,000,000 more than was carried by the same measure last year, and would entail future appropriations of sums that no man can esti-

Neither denunciation nor protest need be added to this record. It carries with it a lesson no thoughtful man can escape.

R. M. LITTLE COMES OUT IN SUPPORT OF PALMER

Former Dimmick Man Says Many Will Follow His Course.

Further indorsement of the candidacy f Congressman A. Mitchell Palmer for United States Senate has been given by R. M. Little, a member of the City Club, a leader in organized charity and a Republican and warm friend of J. Ben-jamin Dimmick. Many advocates and supporters of Mr. Dimmick, Mr. Little says, are now working for Mr. Palmer. In repudiation of Senator Penrose Mr Little declared that if Mr. Penrose was a Republican he himself did not wish to be classed as such. A list of names of Dimmick's supporters, who have ral-lied to Paimer, Mr. Little said, would soon be made public.

FEAR OF BRITISH HOLDS NORWEGIAN SHIP IN PORT HERE

Reported Delay in Sailing of Sommerstad Said to Be Due to Presence of Essex Off Delaware Capes.

Mystery surrounding the delay in the sailing from this port of the Norwegian steamship Sommerstad, which cleared a week ago, has aroused much speculation in shipping circles. The vessel is heavily laden with coal and general car-go usually reckoned as ship's supplies. According to her clearance papers, she is ostensibly scheduled to sail for Cadiz, Spain. The cause of delay was not explained by Captain Axelsen, master of the vessel, or its agent, William J. Grandfield.

Men supposed to know the port's business thoroughly when asked for an ex-planation merely shrugged their shoul-ders and laconically replied: "Isn't the British cruiser Essex lying off the Dela-ware Capes?"

This remark is taken to indicate that the vessel's cargo is contraband goods and liable to seizure. Some shipping men said that the ultimate destination of the goods might be the German cruisers Dresden and Karlsruhe, now playing havoc with British and French commerce in the Caribbean Sea.

It has been charged that these cruisers, which have never put into any port since war was declared for a renewal of their supplies, have been receiving car-goes at sea which have been shipped from this port. An investigation into these charges develop a possibility of their truth, as four Norwegian steamships have salled from this port within the past few weeks carrying cargoes consisting of canned goods, sait beef, sait pork, bacon, ham, rice, sugar, cheese, ordinarily accepted as ship's stores in shipping business. In addition to these they carried several thousand tons of bituminous coal. The first vessel to leave was the Nor wegian steamship Nepos, Captain Neil-sen. She sailed on August 22 for Monrovia, Libera and Teneriffe, for or Her cargo was valued at $22,107.52. was followed on September 2 by the John Ludwig Mowhinckle, with a similar car-go for the same destinations, valued at $23,339.91. On September 8 the Norwegian steamship Unita sailed for Cadiz, Spain, with a cargo valued at $26,352.38. The sommerstad, scheduled for the same port as is the Fram, now being laden.

In the charges that vessels leaving this port have been keeping the German cruisers in supplies, it was indicated that fabulous sums are being paid the own-ers for the risk. It was said that the vessels are instructed to go to a certain position at sea and there await the ar-rival of one of the cruisers which has been apprised by wireless of the vessel's salling.

JERSEY PRIMARIES TOMORROW; BITTER FACTIONAL FIGHTS

Bull Moose Cuddle Up to Both Republicans and Democrats in Ocean County-Scars Certain to Show After the Fray.

[PROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.] TRENTON, Sept. 21.-Tomorrow's primary day in New Jersey, the day when factional fights in all parts of the State will be determined, after which the Republicans, Democrats and Progressives will settle down to the work of trying to elect their respective candidates in the fall election. The Bull Moosers as a party are virtually eliminated in New Jersey death knell of the Rooseveltians as a party of weight. The fights within the Democratic and Republican ranks, however, are numerous, and some of them are bitter.

In the primary fight in Hudson the voters will be called upon to decide which of two brands of Wilson Demogracy they want. For the time being also, at least, will be settled the question of the supremacy in the country between the factions of Naval Officer H. Otto Wittpenn on one side and Governor Fielder on the other. Wittpenn has a complete county and congressional ticket in the field, under the standard of "Progressive Democracy" and the ticket with the standard of "Progressive Democracy" and the ticket with the standard of "Progressive Democracy" and the ticket with the standard of "Progressive Live Technology" and the ticket with the standard of "Progressive Live Technology" and the ticket with the standard of the ticket with the ticket wi Democracy" and the ticket against him is the "anti-boss" ticket. Governor Fielder, who is from Hudson, is not taking an active interest in the pre-primary fight, but it is generally believed that he is staking his interests on the legislative ticket in the field which is against Witt-

FIRST CONGRESS DISTRICT. In the First Congressional District, consisting of Camden, Gloucester and Salem Counties, Representative William J. Browning, the Republican incumbent and candidate, has no opposition within his own ranks. He carried the district in 1912 under the most unfavorable party conditions and he is expected to win the election with small effort. Camden County from a Republican standpoint is in good shape, more than 8000 names having been placed on Senator William T. Read's pe tition. Senator Read, Republican, is running for re-election in that county to the State Senate and he is believed to have every chance for success. H. Graham every chance for success. H. Graham Bleakley is the Democratic senatorial candidate for the nomination, and B. H. Redfield, the Bull Moose aspirant.

Sheriff Joseph E. Nowrey, Democrat, is one of the candidates for the Democratic congressional nomination in the First District, and Harry C. Richmond is another Democratic candidate. Nowrey, it is declared, will get the solid Democratic vote, eliminating Richmond almost en-tirely. George H. Higgins is running as a Progressive-Roosevelt candidate, and George D. Chenowith as an Independent-Progressive candidate, but their vote it is believed will be scattering.

In the Camden County Republican con-test for the Assembly there are five can-didates for thethree places on the ticket. These candidates are Assemblyman John B. Kates and Garfield Pancoast, and John H. Fort, Charles Wolverton and Dean S. Pressey. The Democratic candidates are Herbert W. Royal, Ralph W. Wescott and David G. McGear. The Progressive Assembly ticket consists of Louis B. Ladue, Edmond West and Arthur Litler. Senator George W. F. Gaunt, Repub-lican, from Gloucester, County, who lican, from Gloucester County, who is seeking re-election to the State Senate, and their speed makes it easy for them to elude battle. He is being strongly opposed by the Rev. E. J. Gwynn, a Democrat, who is seeking senatorial honors. Collins B. Allen, the Republican candidate, has no opposition in the primaries. Chalkley Haines is the Progressive candidate.

IN THE SECOND DISTRICT. In the Second Congressional District the fight is very bitter in the Republican ranks. It is concentrated in Atlantic County, although Burlington, Cape May and Cumberland, the other counties of the district, have been drawn into it.

particularly between Richards and Bach-arach, is to the knife. It is not unlikely that Bacharach may It is not unlikely that Bacharach may get the nomination under the present primary tactics, but Republican leaders, or at least some of them, think that the nomination of White or Lewis would probably be the best thing for the party.

The Democrats have no fight in their ranks as far as the congressional nomination is concerned in the Second District. Representative J. Thompson Baker is their candidate for renomination. The Progressives, whose standard bearer is William H. Bright, are showing possibly more vitality in that section, relatively speaking, than elsewhere in the State.

In Atlantic County all other issues are dwarfed in the congressional battle and the congressional candidates and their friends are at each others' throats, forgetting almost entirely in the intensity forgetting almost entirely in the intensity of their fight the Republican party, Cari-ton Godfrey and B. E. Whitman, Republicans, who are running for the Assembly, will be elected to that body. The Democratic candidates for the Assembly nomination are Richard P. Bloom, John C. Magce and William Cariton.

In Cumberland County there is a lively fight on for Sheriff in both primaries, with general good nature on the Repub-lican side and some factional feeling among the Democrats. The Cumberland County Democracy is divided into the Ackley and anti-Ackley factions. Sena-tor John A. Ackley, Democrat, will serve until 1917, but the faction against him is growing, it is reported. The Assembly candidates for the Republican nominathis fall. In Passalc and Ocean Counties they have combined with the Democrats, which fact alone is taken to mean the Walter P. Glaspey and David H. Johnson. There is quite a fight over county offices in Burlington County. Assemblyman Robert Peacock, Republican, is un-opposed in the primaries. His Democratic opponent will be W. D. Cowperthwalt, and George W. Gillingham will run as a Progressive.

Cape May presents the usual normal situation. Assemblyman Lewis T. Stevens, Republican, is unopposed for renomina-tion as the Republican candidate for the Assembly. DOUBLE-BARREL FUSION.

In the Third Congressional District, consisting of Monmouth, Middlesex and Ocean Counties, Representative Thomas Scully will be renominated by the Dem-rats. The Republicans seemed unable to get a strong candidate against him. Finally W. Burtis Havens, of Ocean County, was induced to enter the contest, but the Business Men's League, of Asbury Park, thought the nomination of Hetrick, a Progressive, advisable, and word has been received here of Havens' withdrawal in favor of Hetrick. There is a bitter fight on in Monmouth County among the Democrats over the senatorial nomination. Henry E. Ackerson, Jr., backed by Secretary of State Crater and the Wilson Democrats, is being strongly opposed by Thomas P. Fay, of Long Branch, who is running as an anti-Wilson, anti-Crater candidate. Fay claims that he has been pledged enough support to get the nomination. The Re-publican candidate in Monmouth is T. Frank Appleby, who has no opposition for the nomination. Joseph G. Coleman is the Progressive senatorial candidate The Assembly situation in Monmouth presents no unusual features. In Ocean County the Democratic Assem-candidate, James E. Conley, is also Bull Moose candidate for the nomination, the Democrats and Progressives having combined in that county. Assemblyman David G. Conrad, Republican, will be renominated to the Assembly. There are four Republican and five Democratic candidates for the three places or the Middlesex County Assembly ticket.

Four Republicans, two Democrats and a Progressive are seeking the congressional nominations in the Fourth District comprising Mercer, Hunterdon and Som-erset Counties. The Republican organiza-tion is behind ex-Senator E. C. Hutchinson, it is said, but he will be given a hard race by William E. Blackman, a young lawyer of this city. Hutchinson, it is declared, will lose many votes because he previously lined up with the Bull Moose. William Delaroche Anderson, of Somerville, and Frederick A. Pope, of this city, are making a fight for the Republican congressional nomination, but it is likely that the nomination will go to either Hutchinson or Blackman. The Democratic candidate is The Karlsruhe and the Dresden are both light, speedy cruisers. They confine their efforts to capturing and sinking merchant vessels, as they have no port to take them to. They decline to give battle to any British or French warships and their speed makes it easy for them.

LIVELY CONTEST IN MERCER. For the Mercer Assembly Republican ticket with three places, there are nine candidates, and on the Democratic side there are five. The fighting on both sides is lively, but friendly. There is considerable bitterness, however, among both Democrats and Republicans over the Sheriff's contest. The Republicans have ten candidates in the field and the Demo-crats two. There is also a Progressive. J. Warren Fleming and Assemblyman Hervey S. Moore, of the Republicans, seem to be leading, while J. G. Coleman, a Trenton undertaker, will probably get the Democratic nomination. Sheriff Wai-ter Madden, ex-Mayor of Trenton, is runfield for the nomination in the Second the Democratic nomination. Sheriff WalCongressional District are Assemblyman ter Madden, ex-Mayor of Trenton, is runEmerson L. Richards, Isanc W. Bacharach, ex-Senator Griffith W. Lewis and Senator Blanchard H. White. The war, lican candidate, who is unopposed by any one in his own party, is the present in-cumbent, Samuel H. Builock. The Pro-gressive candidate is Joseph T. Cotton.

Bomerset has a senatorial contest among both Democrats and Republicans. Speaker A. M. Beekman, of the House of Assembly. William V. Steele and F. G. Thomas are the Democratic aspirants, with the chances probably favoring Beekman and on the Democratic Assembly. man, and on the Republican side Senator William W. Smalley is unopposed for the nomination. The Buil Moose candidate is Charles C. Kenyon, who is running on a Progressive-Republican ticket.

Ex-Representative Charles N. Fowler, Republican is Senator for the Republican ticket.

Republican, is fighting for the Republican congressional nomination in the Fifth District. He is opposed on the Republican side by the Rev. William Torrence Stuchell and John H. Capestick, but Fowler is believed to be the strongest man. Representative William E. Tutest man. Representative William E. Tut tie is out for renomination, and he is opposed by Thomas J. Pierson. George W. V. Moy is the Progressive candidate, and there is also a Socialist in the field

PRINCE'S EYE ON THE FUTURE. In the Sixth District, comprising War ren, Sussex and Bergen Countles and two townships of Passaic, Dr. John D. Prince, Republican, formerly president of the State Senate, is running to help the party. He has an eye on the gubernatorial chair, and if he wins his way to Congress he may develop into good timber. His chances are good over his Republican opponent, Major S. Wood McClave. Representative Archibald C. Hart has no opposition on the Democratic side for the renomination.

In the Seventh District, Representative Dow H. Drukker, Republican, who succeeded the late Robert G. Bremner, Demecrat, to Congress, turning the district Republican by an unusually large majority, will get the nomination without opposition. The Democratic nominee will be Walter C. Cabell. There are 12 Re-publicans seeking the Assembly nomination in Passaic County, five Democrats and Progressives combined and two Dem-ocrats. Passaic has five Assembly Representatives.

Edward W. Gray, formerly secretary to ex-Governor E. C. Stokes, is believed Stokes, is believed to be a strong candidate for the Republican nomination from the Eighth Dis-trict, which lies partly in Essex and partly in Hudson Counties. He has two Republican opponents, and in the Demo-cratic ranks there are two Wilson Democrats opposing each other. The Ninth and Tenth Districts, which lie in Essex County, are also interested in primary congressional contests. Representative Walter C. McCoy, Democrat, wants to be renominated, and he has clear sailing. R. Wayne Parker is considered the Representative Edward E. Townsend, Democrat, of the Tenth District, will be opposed at the Democratic primary for the renomination by two Democratic candidates, Michael J. Tansey and Colonel James C. Spriggs. NO FIGHT IN ELEVENTH.

There is no primary fight on in the lith Congressional District, from which John J. Egan, Democrat, is the present representative. He will be renominated, Jacob Straus will be the Republican nominee. In the 12th District, which, like the 11th, lies wholly within Hudson County, here is a warm congressional fight on sides. Representative James A. Hamill, Democrat, is opposed by Arthur F. McGrath, and there are four Republicans seeking the nomination. J. Fisher Anderson, another candidate, is running as a Progressive and Republican.

The old Smith-Nugent faction in Essex will do its utmost to control the Demo-cratic Assembly delegation, and the Witt-pen and Fielder forces are at work in Tudson. One of the greatest fights in the northern part of the State is the Sheriff's contest in Hudson, in which Representa-tive Eugene F. Kinkead is making a tive Eugene F. Jersey Pardon Board Will Consider Burd's Story in November.

TRENTON, N. J., Sept. 21 .- Confessing second time to the murder of Manning Riley in 1907, in order to save John Edward Schuyler, convicted of the crime but believed to be innocent, Frank Burd, a convict in the State prison here, has ngain placed his own life in danger. Burd's first confession was made on September 30, 1912

The first confession was ignored by Prosecuting Attorney Richard Kuhl, of Flemington, and a Grand Jury, acting under directions from Governor Fielder, refused to indict Burd for the crime. The second confession will be presented to the board which will review Schuyler's application for a pardon. The board meets in November.
